HISTORICAL OVERVIEW OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EASTERN SHORE

UMES has had several names throughout its history. Under the control of the Centenary Biblical Institute, the branch known as the Delaware Conference Academy, was founded on September 13, 1886 with an enrollment of nine students. Records reveal that 37 students were enrolled by the end of the year. Subsequently, the institution bore the title of the Industrial Branch of the Morgan State College, still under the influence of the Delaware Conference. As originally operated by Morgan State College under the control of the Methodist Church, the institution was known as the Princess Anne Academy.

The state of Maryland, in operating its land-grant program at the Maryland Agriculture College at College Park to which African-Americans were not admitted as students, sought to provide a land-grant program for African-Americans and took over the Princess Anne Academy, renaming it the Eastern Branch of the Maryland Agricultural College. This arrangement was effected in 1919.

In 1926, the college passed into complete control and ownership of the state, and the University of Maryland was designated as the administrative agency.

In 1948, the Eastern Branch of the University of Maryland, popularly known as Princess Anne Academy, was officially titled Maryland State College, a division of the University of Maryland. On July 1, 1970, Maryland State College became the University of Maryland Eastern Shore.

THE ALMA MATER

I

To Thee, Dear Alma Mater
We raise our grateful song,
For through thy noble teachings
Thou has made thy children strong;
And thousands still shall praise thee
All the earth shall hear their swell, and bind our hearts yet closer to thee we love so well.

II

We love thy spacious campus
We love thy tow'ring halls,
and hallow'd are the lessons
we've learn'd within thy walls.
Stand thou forever glorious,
full-rob'd in living green;
Shine thou in endless splendor beneath thy trees serene.

(Refrain)

Maryland, Maryland, home of Maroon and Gray
Maryland, Maryland, there we will love always.
All hail to thee fair Maryland, all glory be to thee!
Grow thou in strength and honor
through all eternity!

by Daniel Lyman Ridout, Sr.
